

Gay Fathers & Husbands Group

If you're a gay or bi-sexual man who has been in relationships with women – you're not alone. Gay Fathers and Husbands understands ... and maybe we can help each other.

The Gay Fathers and Husbands Group (GFAH) is an informal association of gay and bi-sexual men who may have in common current or past marriages or partnered relationships with women. Some have children – others don't.

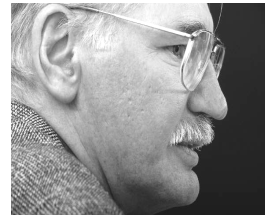

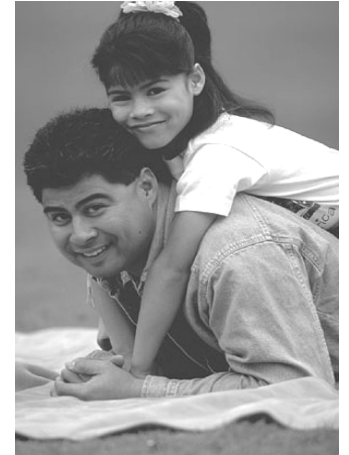

The Gay Fathers and Husbands

Group meets monthly to discuss issues and needs held in common, and to offer support to one another by sharing experiences and encouragement. Attendance will range from as few as 8 to as many as 30 or more. Friends and supporters are normally welcome – meetings are casual – no dues.

Gay Fathers & Husbands Group – has been meeting since 1990

Meetings begin at 7 pm with a potluck dinner. You can bring a dish to share, but it's OK if you don't, we always have plenty to go around. The discussion begins at 7:45 pm and lasts until 9. You can participate if you wish or just listen to what others have to say. Being "out" is not a requirement and members agree to respect the privacy of those attending.

GFAH is not a dating club or a religious group. Participants come from all over NE Ohio and Western PA. Members represent all ages, backgrounds and stages of life.

Meetings are held the second Monday of each month at 7 pm in the Social Hall of the Church of Our Saviour, 471 Crosby Street in Akron, Ohio – located near Highland Square a few blocks south of Market Street (Rt. 18) – turn on Beck, Rhodes, or Balch Streets to reach Crosby. No meeting in August. In June, July and December, we meet at the home of a participant so we can enjoy an outside summer meeting or a Holiday celebration.
